Introduction

The child and family services system in Manitoba is undergoing a major restructuring. This booklet provides a summary of how services will be provided in the Central region as a result of the restructuring.

Please note that the information in this booklet is current as of April 2004. Service arrangements may evolve as the restructuring process is implemented across the province.

THE AJI-CWI: A New Approach to Child and Family Services in Manitoba

The child and family services system works to protect children at risk of abuse or neglect. It supports and strengthens the well-being of families, especially those experiencing difficulties in caring for their children.

Child and family services in Manitoba is currently undergoing a major restructuring through an initiative called The Aboriginal Justice Inquiry – Child Welfare Initiative (AJI-CWI).

The AJI-CWI is a joint initiative of four parties:

- ◆ Manitoba Metis Federation
- ◆ Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs
- ◆ Manitoba Keewatinowi Okimakanak
- ◆ Province of Manitoba

The parties have worked together to develop a new system that:

- ◆ recognizes and respects the cultural diversity of Manitoba
- ◆ returns to First Nations and Metis peoples the right to develop and control the delivery of their own child and family services

In the new system, the delivery of child and family services is a shared responsibility between the Province of Manitoba and Aboriginal peoples. The most fundamental change is the delegation of responsibility for the delivery of child and family services from the Province to four new child and family services Authorities, three of which are Aboriginal Authorities.

The four new Authorities are:

- ◆ Metis Child and Family Services Authority
- ◆ First Nations of Southern Manitoba Child and Family Services Authority
- ◆ First Nations of Northern Manitoba Child and Family Services Authority
- ◆ General Child and Family Services Authority

This change is legislated through The Child and Family Services Authorities Act of the Province of Manitoba, proclaimed November 24, 2003.

Upon completion of the restructuring (being implemented on a region-by-region basis) all four Authorities and their agencies will provide services throughout the province. Aboriginal children and families will have access to culturally appropriate child and family services through Aboriginal agencies, no matter where they live in Manitoba.

Vision Statement

A child and family services system that recognizes and supports the rights of children to develop within safe and healthy families and communities, and recognizes that First Nations and Metis peoples have unique authority, rights and responsibilities to honour and care for their children.

Mission Statement

To have a jointly coordinated child and family services system that recognizes the distinct rights and authorities of First Nations and Metis peoples and the general population to control and deliver their own child and family services province-wide; that is community-based; and reflects and incorporates the cultures of First Nations, Metis and the general population respectively.

Child and Family Services Authorities and Agencies Serving the Central Region

Five agencies from the four Authorities will be the primary service providers in the region:

Metis Authority

- ◆ Metis Child, Family and Community Services

Southern First Nations Authority

- ◆ Dakota Ojibway Child and Family Services
- ◆ Intertribal Child and Family Services
- ◆ West Region Child and Family Services

Northern First Nations Authority

- ◆ Service provided through service agreements with other Authorities

General Authority

- ◆ Child and Family Services of Central Manitoba

Please note that child and family services may be provided by other agencies in the province, but the five agencies profiled in this booklet have primary responsibility in the Central region.

A map depicting the geographic Central region is provided on the inside front cover of this booklet.

Metis Child and Family Services Authority

On behalf of the Metis Child and Family Services Authority (MCFS) and the Metis Child, Family and Community Services Agency (MCFCS) I wish to extend greetings to individuals in Manitoba's Central Region. As many are aware, the past year has been extremely busy for the Board and staff of MCFS and MCFCS as we plan for the opening of the first Metis-specific child and family services agency in the province.

The establishment of MCFCS has been a longstanding dream within the Metis community and it was with great excitement and enthusiasm that we received the formal mandate from the Province of Manitoba to deliver child and family services province-wide on September 13, 2003 and subsequently, Proclamation of The Child and Family Services Authorities Act on November 24, 2003. While these events were major milestones for the Metis Authority and agency, we continue to focus our attention and efforts on preparing for the opening of the agency through detailed planning and development to ensure we are adequately prepared to begin delivering mandated services to families.

We are currently planning to develop services in five stages. In each stage, services will be developed in an area or region of Manitoba. Our initial focus will be the set-up of services in Winnipeg. MCFCS will have a single-agency structure with a head office located in Winnipeg. Although the majority of administrative tasks will be managed centrally through the head office, services will be developed and provided on a regional basis.

MCFCS plans to have the capacity to deliver services directly to children and families throughout Central Manitoba.

Although work regarding the specifics of the restructuring in the Central region is still ongoing, MCFCS is currently planning for a small contingent of staff in the region.

We are excited about the months ahead and we look forward to working with individuals, families, and organizations as we implement our mandate and work to roll out services throughout the province.

Metis Child, Family and Community Services

At the time this booklet was printed, the Metis Child, Family and Community Services Agency (MCFCS) was not yet providing direct service to families. We are currently preparing for the opening of the agency through detailed planning and development to ensure we are adequately prepared to begin delivering mandated services to families. The following provides an overview of our philosophy, as well as our approach to service delivery.

We operate under the following mission statement:

Metis families and communities have the right and responsibility to care for children. Our mission is to ensure children and families are served with dignity, respect, and understanding throughout the delivery of Metis community-based family services and support programs, so that we may serve to strengthen the Metis child, family and community.

Our service delivery is guided by the following principles:

- ◆ Metis families and communities are the cornerstone of the Metis Nation and the service delivery system must reflect this vision
- ◆ Responsibility for decision-making regarding Metis children and families lies with the family, extended family and community whenever possible
- ◆ The organizational structure promotes and supports community governance at all levels
- ◆ The service delivery system will encompass both formal and informal elements
- ◆ The service delivery system must be operated in an efficient and effective manner
- ◆ The service delivery system will be outcome-based and will reflect the core guiding principles of MCFCS

All services under the Metis Authority are being organized under a single agency structure to support and strengthen Metis, Non-Status and Inuit families throughout the province.

Our efforts are focused on serving the best interests of children, families and communities. Our focus is to promote the health and well-being of our children and families by building on the capacity of our communities through the provision of culturally based programs and services.

We will accomplish this by ensuring our programs are responsive and accountable to the communities we serve. We will offer an alternative method of intervention and prevention that is holistic and family centred. We believe that involvement of family and community is essential when working with children who are at risk of entering the child welfare system.

Children require a permanent, stable, safe and nurturing environment where they receive adequate nutrition, shelter and clothing. As well, a child's unique strengths and needs must be assessed and attended to in order to maximize the child's emotional, social, academic, spiritual and cultural growth.

Overriding all these needs is the firm belief that maintaining family and community connections and decision-making power within the community is essential to healthy child development. Children must be provided with the skills necessary to access resources and maintain and build relationships to make a healthy transition into adulthood.

We look forward to the future where we will all work together to build stronger families and communities.

First Nations of Southern Manitoba Child and Family Services Authority

In 2000, The Assembly of Manitoba Chiefs signed an historic agreement with the Province of Manitoba that would begin the process of restoring responsibility to First Nations for child and family services to their own people living off-reserve.

In Manitoba, First Nations have been providing child and family services to their own people living on-reserve for over twenty years. With the proclamation of The Child and Family Services Authorities Act, First Nations are now able to begin providing these same services to their off-reserve residents, wherever they live in Manitoba.

The First Nations of Southern Manitoba Child and Family Services Authority is an incorporated body preparing to assume the duties and responsibilities that The Act assigns to it. Preparations include developing the management, financial, operational, information technology, human resources, and program capabilities, while at the same time participating in the transitioning of the child and family services system in Manitoba.

The Southern First Nations Authority provides services to seven First Nation child and family services agencies, which provide a wide variety of culturally appropriate services to 36 southern communities.

These agencies are:

- ◆ Anishinaabe Child & Family Services
- ◆ Dakota Ojibway Child & Family Services
- ◆ Intertribal Child & Family Services
- ◆ Peguis Child & Family Services
- ◆ Sagkeeng Child & Family Services
- ◆ Southeast Child & Family Services
- ◆ West Region Child & Family Services

Each of these agencies provides services to individual communities. The Central area is served by three agencies, and more information on these is provided in the pages that follow.

The Southern First Nations Authority has a Board of Directors and they have hired their Chief Executive Officer, along with four other supporting staff. In anticipation of extending their mandates, each agency has been working on a strategic action plan, which will guide their growth as they begin to extend their off-reserve service capacities. Southern First Nations Authority Board has been engaged in the development of a values, vision and mission statement. A new office location has recently been secured, and is now fully operational.

We operate under the following mission statement:

"Dakota Ojibway Child & Family Services Inc. will ensure the safety and well-being of children by empowering families through community self-determination."

Dakota Ojibway Child and Family Services makes every effort to ensure that the provision of Child and Family Services is compatible to the needs of the Dakota Ojibway Tribal Council communities. The agency promotes the seven teachings of our culture – Honesty, Wisdom, Respect, Trust, Sharing, Humour and Humility.

Dakota Ojibway Child and Family Services has identified the following objectives:

- ◆ To ensure the safety and well being of children
- ◆ To strengthen and unify families who are members of Dakota Ojibway Tribal Council bands
- ◆ To place Dakota Ojibway Tribal Council children, who are coming into the care of Dakota Ojibway Child and Family Services back within their own communities or with other Native families, as directed by the child's band

- ◆ To assist children, who were placed outside their bands and with non-native families prior to the establishment of Dakota Ojibway Child and Family Services, to reconnect and/or return to their families and/or bands
- ◆ To develop preventative services for the prevention of circumstances requiring the protective placement of Dakota Ojibway Tribal Council children
- ◆ To develop community responsibility, through the establishment of Local Child and Family Services committees, Child Protection Committees and a Council of Elders

General Child and Family Services Authority

The General Child and Family Services Authority (General Authority) has been created as a part of the whole child welfare reform strategy contemplated by the Aboriginal Justice Inquiry – Child Welfare Initiative (AJI-CWI). In transitioning responsibility for Aboriginal children and families requiring child welfare services to the First Nations and Metis Authorities, it was recognized that the non-Aboriginal population needed to be served. The design of the new system will see responsibility for all non-Aboriginal permanent wards and those who choose the General Authority as their service provider rest with General Authority agencies.

The General Authority agencies are as follows:

- ◆ Child and Family Services of Western Manitoba
- ◆ Child and Family Services of Central Manitoba
- ◆ Jewish Child and Family Service
- ◆ Churchill Child and Family Services (a program of the Churchill Regional Health Authority)
- ◆ Winnipeg Child and Family Services
- ◆ Rural and Northern Services - Interlake
- ◆ Rural and Northern Services - Eastman
- ◆ Rural and Northern Services - Parkland
- ◆ Rural and Northern Services - Northern

All of these agencies have been in existence for many years and continue to deliver child welfare services in their particular geographical regions. They continue to be responsible for receiving referrals from their communities, investigating child abuse allegations, and providing all services under The Child and Family Services Act and The Adoption Act, including licensing foster homes.

The role of the General Authority is as articulated in The Child and Family Services Authorities Act but generally is as follows:

- ◆ To ensure that child and family services are delivered through a network of agencies to all children and families falling under the jurisdiction of the General Authority who require these services
- ◆ To advocate for the delivery of high quality services throughout the General Authority agencies
- ◆ To fund the agencies under its jurisdiction for regional and community based programs and services
- ◆ To ensure compliance with legislation, regulations and standards

The General Authority is governed by a Board of Directors appointed by the Minister of Family Services and Housing for the Province of Manitoba. The Board is a governance Board which takes the lead role with the General Authority in promoting and supporting innovative programs within the agencies.

The AJI-CWI has created a unique opportunity for all Authorities and service providers to critically examine all of the assumptions behind the traditional delivery of child welfare in this province. The General Authority too takes this opportunity. With the leadership of the General Authority and the continued work of the agencies, the future of services to children and families will be reformed and enhanced. The well being of all children living in the province continues to be the prime directive for all child welfare practitioners. Innovative and creative alternatives to the more traditional delivery of services is what is driving the whole system under this initiative....we need to preserve what is good for children and change what doesn't work anymore.
